

Day 1 – Thursday June 29th

9.15 Opening and welcome

Keynote: Politicised practice and addressing social inequity – Sarah Walther

Burnout and inspiration in adult mental health	Modified ToL in Russia; contributing to community work; integrating embodiment; and much more	Just Therapy: belonging, sacredness and liberation as guides for work	Working with young people and their families where there are gender identity issues	Prison radio in the re-authoring of lives
------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------

LUNCH

Keynote: Refugees talk about working to thrive in the UK

Current considerations of politics and power: non UK citizens in Brexit land	ToL in MH; Standing up to stigma and inequalities	Family work in the context of multi-generation sexual abuse	Learnings from developing 'Creating Wellness' courses in the community; Narrative in the YMCA
------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--

Early evening session: Video presentation of selected teachings of Michael White

Day 2 – Friday June 30th

Keynote: Working with Young People who have Experienced Trauma – Sabine Vermeire

Autobiographical performance in achieving conflict transformation and reconciliation	From individual to social action in group work	Using narrative group supervision with people who have no narrative training	Making narrative therapy accessible for people with significant cognitive difficulties	Team of Life and building resilience in UK school children: research findings
--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------

LUNCH

Keynote: TBA
Imagination and metaphor in narrative practice with children and adolescents	Narrative film making with refugees	Deconstructing dominant ways of thinking in schools; power; working with the institution as a whole	ToL in Children's Social Care: teams, foster carers and care leavers
Conference closing ceremony
4.30, Conference ends				